FLOOR DEBATE

January 14, 2004 LB 353

little further clarification of what you intend.

SPEAKER BROMM: Senator Vrtiska, will you yield?

SENATOR VRTISKA: Yes, I will.

SENATOR BEUTLER: What's being changed is the word "suspension," and the word "suspension" is being changed to "impoundment."

SENATOR VRTISKA: That's correct.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay. And being able to suspend a license has the connotation of a temporary taking of a license, right?

SENATOR VRTISKA: Well, in visiting about it, I understand that, yes, that's what it does. But it also has a cloud, because of the word "suspension," as I understand it from talking with the court.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay. So the word "impoundment" is substituted because the word "impoundment" does not have a cloud for insurance purposes? Is that the reason that...?

SENATOR VRTISKA: Well, I think that what I've been...the court that I talked to, they used the word...what was our original?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Suspension.

SENATOR VRTISKA: "Suspend" rather than...but I'm not a lawyer. I don't know the difference between "suspend" and "impound," to be honest with you.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Well, Senator Baker, let me switch to you, if I could, since this is a committee amendment.

SPEAKER BROMM: Senator Baker.

SENATOR BEUTLER: And I would ask the same question. The word "impoundment" is substituted for the word "suspension," but it's my understanding that it's not intended to change the meaning of what a judge can do; that is, that an impoundment and a
